The Late Elections

California papers have detailed returns of the late elections The San Francisco Bulletin always careful reliable, and free from partisanship in its statements says "there is sufficient reason to believe that the general result is a substantial victory for the Republicans It says the result is in great part due to the appreciation of Grant's Administration, which has reduced the debt $120 000,000, reduced taxation at the rate of $70, 000 000 or $80 000,000 a year, effected a marked retrenchment in public expenses and pursued an honorable and generous course in its dealings with disturbed foreign countries

The San Francisco Bulletin says that the Hon S B Axtell, Democratic member of Congress from California, wrote to that paper some time ago, expressing the opinion that the present political complexion of the House of Representatives (Republicans) after the Fall elections would remain unchanged. His friends thought he had lost his senses and the San Francisco Examiner forthwith read him out of the party The results of Tuesday's elections in Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Iowa and Nebraska show that Axtell was entirely correct in his estimate, notwithstanding the confidence of such gray-headed and astute politicians as Eugene Casserly who taught their devoted followers to anticipate glorious victories The Bulletin adds that there is no doubt but the active and energetic administration of President Grant has won for him the hearty approval of a large majority of the people of the United States. On the whole the Republicans should be satisfied with the present political complexion of affairs the Democrats being accustomed to defeat can bear an additional disappointment with equanimity

Pilot Laws and Party

The debate on the new pilot bill, which is to be put through the Legislature under pressure of a sort of idea that it has something to do with politics, either for the advantage of "Democracy or the punishment of 'Bad Logs,'" discloses the nature and scope of the measure, and we refer to that debate, published elsewhere in our columns, for particulars. The new act will be an additional charge upon the commerce of the Columbia river Messrs. Whalley and Lockhart, in their remarks upon it in the House showed very plainly that it should not be adopted Nevertheless an idea has obtained a lodgment in the Democratic mind that this act will be a source of annoyance and expense to Ben Holladay, and for this reason it is put through Besides, it will put money in the pocket of a very reliable Democrat. These arguments are conclusive. The majority do not stop to consider such plain and practical remarks as that made by Mr Lockhart, who said that every act of this description is a restriction on commerce, a tariff which must at last be paid by the people in higher freights and increased prices. The tug is to have in every case full pilotage simply by setting her colors when a ship is coming in, even though the ship may not need or desire the services of pilot or tug. Thus no escape will be possible, even by the payment of half fees As usual the members from the Eastern counties, who do most of the legislation for the State but who have no conception of its interests and bear none of its burdens, take a position against the interests and wants of this city and of the greater part of the State. A majority have an idea that there is some thing of a partisan character involved in the measure, and that some indefinable good is to result to "the party" from it This is enough for them, and they go ahead

Northern Pacific Railroad.

We are informed by Mr Wade, Register of the Land Office at Oregon City, that maps showing the designated route of the Northern Pacific Railroad, under Act of July 2, 1864, have been issued by the Commissioner of the General Land Office to the local land offices in Oregon and Washington Territory with instructions to withhold from disposal the odd sections of public lands falling within the limit of twenty miles of the line of the road The withdrawal of the odd sections enuring to the road within the Oregon City District took effect on the 15th inst

The route designated for the road Mr Wade informs us, follows down the Columbia river, on the north side, to a point near Vancouver, where it parts, one branch crossing to Portland and the other proceeding down the Columbia to a point nearly opposite Reinier, and thence in a northerly direction.

We may state here that Mr. John F Kidder, who is well and favorably known in connection with the construction of the Oregon and California Railroad, has entered the service of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company as Division Engineer and in this capacity will superintend the work between Portland and Puget Sound a portion of which will almost certainly be pushed forward next year

We are dragging the Democratic party along. Gradually it is abandoning its old camping grounds and leaving the rubbish and debris thereof behind it A few years ago it was bitterly opposed to negro voting Now it not only accepts that doctrine but courts the negro vote. Not long ago it howled fearfully about the taxation of United States securities and made a campaign or two on that issue But now it gives the idea up and never thinks of attempting to tax the bonds Still later it made a great uproar about the Chinese The Oregon Democracy were going to stop their coming into the State But now, when they have full control of the Legislature they decline to take any measures to stop them and their members get up and say that no lawyer above the grade of a pettifogging demagogue would argue that that thing can be done Ta, indeed, a "grand old party!"

All the Democratic papers of the State are regretting that the Legislature failed to adopt the proposition looking to the repudiation of the State debt They have reason to be dissatisfied Did not their party come into power in this State on the direct issue of repudiation? And now is it fair that the Democracy, who have been hungering and thirsting to repudiate, should be put off by the indecision and cowardice of their Legislature? 'Tis 'most intolerable and not to be endured!

A late dispatch states that considerable interest is felt in regard to the complexion of the newly elected Legislature of Indiana, as Senator Morton's final acceptance of the English mission depends upon it being Republican in order that he may be succeeded in the Senate by a person in full accord with the Administration and Congress

We compile from California papers received by steamer the following additional returns and details of the late elections

PENNSYLVANIA

First District—Samuel P Randall Dem has 4,315 majority

Second District—J W Creely (Ind Rep) has a majority of 1 000 over Chas O'Neil, the regular Republican nominee

Third District—Leonard Myers (Republican) claims a majority of 600 over John Moffit Dem), a large Republican gain

Fourth District W D Kelly (Rep) has a majority rising 2,000 over Wm B Thomas (Independent)

Fifth District Still in doubt The returns from Bucks county are not all in It is said A C Harner (Rep) is defeated by John B Reading (Democrat)

Sixth District—The majority for Acker (Dem) is estimated at 1 500

Seventh District—Washington Townsend (Rep) is elected by 2,500 majority

Eighth District—The majority for J Lawrence Getz (Dem) is nearly 6 000

Ninth District—The majority for O J Dickey (Rep) is 5,800

Tenth District—The vote is very close between John W Killinger (Rep) and Cyrus D Gronger, (Democrat) It will take the full returns to settle the question The majority will be very small either way

Eleventh District—The majority for John B Storms (Dem.) is estimated at 7,000

Twelfth District—L D. Shoemaker (Rep) is reported elected, but this is doubtful

Thirteenth District—Ulysses Mercur (Rep) is said to be elected by 150 majority This is also doubtful.

Fourteenth District—John B Packer (Republican) is certainly elected by over 2,000 majority

Census election in the sixteenth District is still in doubt, also, Stewart's election in the Twenty-first District.

General Negley is re-elected by about 2 200 majority in the Twenty-second (Pittsburg) District

In the Twenty-third District the regular Republican ticket for county officers is elected in Allegheny county by some thousands

In the State Legislature the Republicans will have a majority of five in the Senate, which is a gain of two The House will stand the same as last year

Leeds, the Republican candidate, has a majority for Sheriff in Philadelphia.

OHIO

The Republicans gain one Congressman in the First District and undoubtedly carry the Second Third, Fourth Seventh, Eighth Ninth Eleventh, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth Nothing has been heard from the Sixth District The representation in Congress, conceding the Sixth District to Denver will stand thirteen Republicans to six Democrats, as at present,

Another dispatch, says the State will have according to the latest indications, fourteen Republicans and five Democrats in Congress, a gain of one member for the Republicans

INDIANA

In the First District Niblack, Democrat, is elected Second District Kerr, Democrat, Third District, Holman, Democrat, Fourth District, doubtful, Fifth District, Coburn Republican Sixth District Voorhees, Democrat, Seventh District, doubtful, Eighth District, Tyner, Republican Ninth District, doubtful—General Wallace, Republican, probably elected, Tenth District, Williams Republican, Eleventh District Packard, Republican

The Republicans gain two members of the Legislature in Evansville.

IOWA

Des Moines gives 600 Republican majority a large gain, Green county 300, Cass county 325, Madison county, 600

The Republican majority in the State will be over 30,000

NEW JERSEY.

The Republicans of Newark New Jersey at the charter election swept the city by a majority of 2 500, a gain of nearly 2 000

COMMENTS BY THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE

The Tribune sets down the returns already ascertained as indicating substantial Republican victories It says the returns from Pennsylvania indicate that the Republicans hold their own on Congressmen and in certain portions of the State have done even better than could reasonably have been expected

HENCEFORTH —Swimmuttuck, Prussia, is a fortified place, and within the limits of the fort immense quantities of ammunition are now manufactured The process of making shells is finished by the sealing of each with boiling pitch Each shell must be held singly, over the vessel of pitch, while another man seals it As might be expected the operation is a ticklish one as all about are scattered pieces of shells sealed or otherwise Recently a man who was holding a shell let it fall into the vessel of boiling pitch when the Chief of Ordnance, who was standing near superintending the operations, without losing one moment, plunged both hands into the hot stuff, and seizing the shell flung it into a tub of cold water standing near He fainted immediately afterward from pain But had he hesitated a second or so, there would have been a most disastrous explosion and conflagration which the heroism of a single individual alone was capable of diverting

A Washington dispatch of the 12th inst says that the Administration is well pleased with the general result of the late elections and accepts it as proof that the policy of the President has been sustained and finally endorsed by the people

THE METROPOLITAN POLICE BILL PASSED —A special telegram from Salem received at 9 o'clock last night says

"The House has just passed Stout's Metropolitan Police Bill by 29 to 14—a strict party vote

AFTERNOON SESSION —The Bill of Beck & Waldman passed the Senate and will go through every house that they have the best stock of Clothing and Gents Furnishing Goods which is the cheapest than that of any other house Call and judge for yourself

The Summer is past and Autumn is here,
The finest season throughout the whole year,
But the days grow cool, and all must prepare
For warmer Clothing in Winter to wear
Well ROSEN & FISHEL of Clothing renown,
Have the best supply ever brought to town
They have all sorts of coats and pants that will match
That will last a whole year and not need a patch
There are sacks vests and shirts and a thousand things more
Which they offer you cheaper than ever before
You all need the clothes and they need the tin,
Then get a new suit and let Winter go in

Rain after Drought

A [illegible]
The farmer thanked the Lord he was good
And [illegible]
Made useless by the long and dreary mood

The hot air rested on the burning glare
[illegible]
No second cut with shrill rejoicing the eye
Where once he [illegible]

A few sh[illegible]
Fresh[illegible]
The earth has drunk its fill and all about
The amber pools are [illegible]

A mill on drops a[illegible]
The springs [illegible]
The farmer laughs [illegible]
Though has [illegible]

And all the fields and pastures seem to say
With joyous smile that I shall never forget
And all the flowers and trees in their rare jolo
We'll sew two will come He have failed yet

God of my life as God I call thee
This lovely wonder which Thy hand has wrought
Quickens in thought the more I see man's fold
With Thy great love also my soul I thirst gat

For I have felt [illegible] as hot and dry
As ever earth in summer's fiercest hours
And the long days slow creeping over me
Brought me no token of Thy gracious power

Then, at Thy word down fell Thy Spirit rain
I felt the [illegible]
Made fresh and clean and [illegible]
I heard the whisper I have all I ought new

But mine, alas was not the holy faith
The parched earth fell through all her thirsty hours
I was in fear that never more again
Should I be quickened by the heavenly powers

So shall it be no more but though I lie
For many days as one Thou dost forget
Recalling this glad hour, my heart shall say,
"I know Thou lovest me never failed me yet"

Brick Pomeroy's Portraiture of Tammany

(From Pomeroy's Democrat 8 p. m.)

One dislikes to strike the ax into the trunk of the tree which for years [illegible] the spring ground of those who have fought in common enemy

But when that tree becomes full of [illegible] worms reptiles blood sucks vultures and beetles, it is time to well shake the branches or put the ax to the trunk which upholds rot tenness

So with Tammany

Once it was a Democratic Society

Once it gave audience to the people and said let the best man win

Once it was intent only on Democratic victories

Its sachems consulted with the people and balloted for Democracy Its warriors defended their friends and punished enemies

Once it reached out to all parts of the city and State to help the people

Now look at the picture

Tammany has torn down the flag of Democracy for that of robbery and plunder

Its only aim now is to enrich the beat thieves and Grand Sachems Its managers so few that they can be counted on five fingers steal in one way and another over four millions of dollars a year from the tax payers of New York city

It is no more with Tammany a question of Democracy and the defence of the people but a contemptuous system of plunder to enrich rotatives The question now asked of a candidate is not is he a Democrat but how much can he steal, and how well will he divide

Democrats here in this Democratic city stand back like cowards, waiting in line with thieves [illegible], cribbers, burglars murderers, and prison-birds to see who is a fit man to represent—not the people, but Bill Tweed, Peter B Sweeney, Slippery Dick Connolly, and a few other owners of mahogany barns, rose-wood hog pens, and veneered palaces filled with furniture charged to and paid for by the city

Under the management of our present city officials, the credit of the city is not worth so much as the promise of a black-leg or a drunken prostitute For they will keep their word, while the hand Sachems of Tammany claiming to own the city of New York live by lying thrive by thickery fat in corruption cheat their supporters victimize the public, rob the tax payers steal from every fund they handle and pay audited claims of honest businessmen only on shares

Tammany selects for this fate—for this—that thief for that man It is this bar for this office—that bar for that one

Its career now is one infamy Its power is that of money Its object that of plunder

The city of New York is to-day in debt millions of dollars, while city creditors are hawking their audited bills for customers but in vain, for no man can collect a dollar of the city till he soaps and annoints every one in his way, from the door-keeper of the Mayor to the one who closes the door behind the Comptroller The clerks in the departments named are taught that lying is a virtue—that dodging Democracy—that double dealing is religion and percentage a duty

They are robbed of their earnings They are kept for months out of their pay till want compels them to sell their claims to this father that brother this nephew or that relative of some one who pays out nothing till his little per cent be allowed and till the assessment for trotting horses brown front residence, wine-bills, valuable jewelry and country residences be paid

This is Tammany as it is now

This is Tammany Democracy

This is the Tammany combination of law making jury setters, judge owners and people robbers which govern the city of New York now, after a shrewd and sealed alliance with the bamboozlers and bank-owners of Wall street, puts this city to rob it of millions each year

If you want a few more of Tammany management, we will give indisputable facts each week in the Democrat, till the rural Democracy and the people everywhere shall know who is to be cheated by Tammany as new man grad

We are a Democrat but not a thief, a beggar, an office seeker, or a coward afraid to defend the right

And as a Democrat it is our duty to expose rascality and fraud robbery and corruption, no matter in what party or what place it may exist

And so we enter upon the work

Barbarities of War

The massacre of Badajoz has parallels in almost every modern war —[illegible] accept the only possible account of it and that can easily be matched in the history of French [illegible] of English armies When Soult stormed Oporto in 1809 a hellish massacre of non combatants followed rape, pillage and murder were unrestrained, the river was literally choked with the dead, and 10 000 of the Portuguese in citizen men, women and children, perished in various ways When Wellington assaulted Ciudad Rodrigo, in 1812 still worse scenes were enacted and the British fired the town in three or four places and tried to blow up the great magazine—a crime all the more atrocious as the town belonged to their allies When the same commander stormed Badajos soon afterward the sack of the city with all the nameless accompaniments of murder and violence, lasted two days and [illegible] the When he took St Sebastian in 1813 the outrages of his troops almost exceeded belief The wretched inhabitants were driven from their burning houses and huddled in one quarter of the city, were subjected to every horror which diabolical lust and rage could inspire Girls and women were violated in the sight of their parents and their husbands Every [illegible] was pillaged The streets ran with wine and blood and resounded for two or three days with the shrieks of the tortured On the morning of the assault St Sebastian contained over 600 houses at the end of three days there remained only 36 In this case also it must be remembered that the inhabitants who suffered were not only non combatants but the friends and allies of the British Wellington was a just man but in the excitement of victory the brutal instincts of the soldiers got the mastery and there was no controlling them Augereau made himself infamous by his cruelties to the peasants of Catalonia in 1810 The annal of the British wars in India [illegible] atrocities. During the British American war of 1812 Admiral Brisbane received [illegible] orders from the English Government to destroy and waste all towns and districts of the United States found accessible to the attacks of British armaments General Montauban got his title of Count Palikao by a most unscrupulous campaign in China The destruction of Chambersburg was a blot upon the Confederate campaign in Pennsylvania and in Sherman's march to the sea there was many a deed of violence at which [illegible] should have a sheet in our [illegible] history

[illegible] of all recent wars in the [illegible] Algeria were the whole tenor [illegible] and [illegible] has been equally [illegible] sufficient their cruelties like rats must be met by the true spirit in the orientation of battle but by the different order of the French Generals For deeds like those Pelissier and Saint Arnaud fought hell in a rural to the [illegible]

In stress to [illegible] Russians [illegible] since [illegible] ought [illegible] Inkermann [illegible] kindness [illegible] to the wounded [illegible] Hills [illegible] Sebastopol [illegible] wickedness which is naturally started by the disorders of war and we hope shall be free from them till wars are abolished [illegible]
